ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE, }
Lansing, December 31st, 1869. }

To His Excellency HENRY P. BALDWIN,
Governor of the State of Michigan:

SIR—In obedience to law, I have the honor to submit my official report for the year 1869.

At the January term of the Supreme Court, I argued the case of George Dixon, plaintiff in error, vs. The People, defendants in error. Dixon was convicted in the Branch Circuit of an assault with intent to commit the crime of murder.

The Court, at the April term, held that the Circuit Court erred in admitting one Harriet Dixon as a witness for the prosecution—the defendant claiming that she was then his lawful wife.

At the same term the case of The Bank of Tecumseh vs. Sylvester B. Smith, sheriff, &c., was submitted. It was an action of trespass commenced by the bank in the Lenawee Circuit against the sheriff, to recover back a special tax assessed to the bank and collected by the sheriff, under act No. 122, laws of 1867.

The Supreme Court held this act clearly in conflict with the law of Congress, as construed by the Supreme Court of the United States.

At the April term of the Supreme Court the case of Thomas Ryan, complainant, vs. George W. Brown, et al., defendants, was argued by me for the defendants. This case involved obstructions to the Sault Ste Mary's Canal. It was claimed on the part of the Canal Board that Ryan was obstructing the canal, and defendant Brown, the then Superintendent, was directed by the Board to remove the obstructions placed in the river by Ryan. Ryan commenced suit against the defendants by filing a bill of complaint in the Chippewa Circuit, and procuring an injunction.

The Court held that Ryan owned to the center of the river, and that the defendants were trespassers, and ordered a perpetual injunction.

At the same term of the Supreme Court, the case of John Patten, plaintiff in error, vs. The People, defendants in error, was argued and submitted. Patten was charged in the Oakland Circuit with the crime of murder, and was convicted of the crime of murder in the second degree. The verdict was reversed, on the ground of erroneous admission and rejection of testimony, and for refusal to charge as requested by the respondent, and for error in the charge to the jury.

At the same term the case of James Foster, plaintiff in error, vs. The People, defendants in error, was argued and submitted. The record showed that Foster was jointly charged with one McCoy, in the Macomb Circuit, with the crime of grand larceny; that there was a separate trial, and that McCoy was used as a witness by the prosecution.

The verdict was reversed on the ground that the Court did not compel McCoy to answer certain questions put to him on cross-examination.

At the July term of the Supreme Court, the Board of Regents of the University applied for a mandamus to compel the Auditor General to draw his warrant on the State Treasurer for the sum of $15,000, claimed to be due to the University under act No. 14, laws of 1869. It was held by the Court that the University was entitled to the amount claimed.

At the October term of the Supreme Court the case of M. Henry Roberts, plaintiff in error, vs. The People, defendants in error, was argued and submitted by J. G. Lodge, Esq., Prosecuting Attorney of Calhoun county, for the defendants in error. Roberts was charged in the Calhoun Circuit with assault with intent to commit the crime of murder. No judgment has yet been pronounced.

At the same term the case of John Hanna, plaintiff in error, vs. The People, defendants in error, was submitted. Hanna was charged in the Kent Circuit with assault with intent to commit the crime of murder. He was convicted of a simple assault and battery. This was the only error assigned. The Court affirmed the judgment.

At the same term the case of The People ex rel. John S. Nichols, vs. the Quarter Master General, was argued by me for the respondent. The relator claimed one hundred dollars bounty under act No. 23, laws of 1864, for the reason that the quota of the sub-district to which he was credited was, at the time of his enlistment and muster, (February 9, 1864,) full. He asked for a mandamus to compel the payment. A majority of the Court held that he was entitled to the bounty.

At the same term, on the relation of the Secretary of State, I procured a writ of mandamus against the State Insurance Company of Lansing, to compel its officers to submit their books for inspection, under section 26, Act 136, laws of 1869.

At the same term the case of John J. D. Blake, plaintiff in error, vs. the People, defendants in error, was placed on the docket for argument. Blake was charged in the Cass Circuit with the crime of murder. He was convicted of murder in the second degree, and sentenced to ten years confinement at Jackson.

The record disclosed so many glaring errors in the admission and rejection of testimony at the trial, and the charge of the Court was so manifestly in conflict with several decisions of the Supreme Court, that I declined to argue the questions raised by the bill of exceptions; and upon my statement the Court reversed the judgment, and directed a new trial.

Soon after entering upon the duties of my office, I was made aware of the fact that all of the county officers of the county of Chippewa, elected at the general election in 1868, were kept out of their respective offices by the old incumbents. I immediately filed informations in the nature of a quo warranto against them in the Supreme Court. These cases are still pending and undetermined. A question of fact was raised by the pleadings, which was sent to that county for trial.

An information was also filed in the Supreme Court on the relation of James Mathews, to test the right of Henry D. Smith to hold the office of Treasurer of Marquette county. This case is still pending.

There have been several suits commenced in the Supreme and Circuit Courts to test the right to hold some minor office, but as they have only a local importance, it is not necessary to refer to them more particularly in this report. In this class of cases I have required responsible security in order to indemnify the State against costs.

Usually, in this class of cases, the relator employs an attorney to conduct the cause, and the Attorney General has but little labor to perform in the case.

Early in the season I commenced suit in the St. Clair Circuit against Henry Johr and his sureties, on his bond made in 1866 to the Auditor General. This matter has been so frequently before the Legislature that its history must be familiar. There is nearly eight thousand dollars due on the bond for principal and interest. The defendants claim that while Johr was taking the money to the State Treasurer, he was robbed. Conceding all they claim to be true, the authorities are abundant to show that this is no defense to an action on the bond. The case is still pending, with fair prospects of obtaining judgment at the next term of that Court.

I also commenced suit in the Jackson Circuit, on the bond of George W. Brown, made March 4, 1863, given for the faithful discharge of his duties as Superintendent of the Sault Ste

Mary's Canal. The defendants reside in different parts of the State, and I was unable to obtain service upon them until quite recently. I am in hopes to dispose of the case during the coming year.

I also commenced suit on the bond of Edward F. Bosworth, in the Ottawa Circuit. He was appointed a local commissioner on the Berlin and Georgetown State road, and gave a bond, November 20, 1865, conditioned for the faithful discharge of its duties. It is claimed that he did not comply with the condition of his bond. A general demurrer was filed by the defendants to the declaration. There has been, to my knowledge, no court held in the county since the suit was commenced.

In May last the First National Bank of Sturgis commenced suit in the St. Joseph Circuit against the sheriff of that county, to recover back a tax paid by the bank to the sheriff, who collected the money on the warrant of the Auditor General, issued under Act No. 122, Laws of 1867. The bank claims that the tax was illegal, and that it was paid under protest. I entered my appearance for the defendant. The case was brought to argument before the Circuit Judge upon an agreed state of facts, who directed a judgment for the plaintiff. Not being satisfied with his determination of the case, I removed it to the Supreme Court, where it is still pending.

Ralph C. Smith filed a bill of complaint in the Wayne Circuit against the County Treasurer and the Auditor General, and procured an injunction, enjoining them from collecting certain taxes, or selling the lands named in the bill by reason of the non-payment of the taxes. The bill is founded on the theory that the new tax law of 1869 cannot control the collection of the taxes assessed in the year 1868. I have appeared in the case, and filed a demurrer to the bill. The case is still pending in the Wayne Circuit.

Several suits have been commenced in the different Circuit Courts of the State against the County Treasurers and the Auditor General to enjoin the collection of taxes. I have appeared in each case, and when I ascertained from a copy of the bill that the tax was local, and in which the State had no interest, I have forwarded the papers to the Prosecuting Attorney of the county where the suit was pending, or to the attorney of the municipality interested in the collection of the tax, with direction to defend or not, as they saw cause.

It is well known that under our homestead act, parties have made their application to purchase, received the certificate and paid the first installment due on the purchase, but have failed to comply with the law, in the actual occupation of the premises within the time limited. Several suits have been commenced to declare such contracts forfeited. There can be no question about the result.

I took early measures to find out the situation of what is usually known as "the Phoenix Bank claim." After ascertaining the facts, I directed J. L. Jerregan, Esq., (the gentleman associated with Hon. J. M. Howard, in the prosecution of the suit against the Bank, reported in 33 N. Y. Reps.,) to commence suit against the Bank for the balance due the State. This balance was for certain trust lands, or their value, and the bank had the option of tendering a deed of the lands or paying their value at the time of the commencement of suit. I found that the value of the lands to which the State could claim any title was, in January last, only $9,416, and that most of the lands had been sold by the State for taxes. These lands were mainly valuable for their timber, which under these tax deeds had been removed. The bank proposed to settle the claim, and it was finally agreed that the Bank should pay the State $10,000 and all costs, including the fees of Mr. Jerregan for his services. The State executed a release, and the Bank forwarded the money, which was deposited in the Treasury of the State Sept. 11, 1869.

I am under many obligations to Hon. D. H. Jerome, of Saginaw City, for valuable assistance and services in looking up and getting into shape, the evidence against the Bank.

The last Legislature, by Joint Resolution No. 33, referred the Dewey Hazelton claim to the Board of State Auditors for settlement and compromise. I am not officially informed of the result of the reference.

The official correspondence in this office, during the past year, has demanded a great deal of time and care. Scarcely a mail has come without bringing letters calling upon me for a construction of some of our statutes. Local, municipal officers, in most instances ignore or entirely overlook the fact that the Prosecuting Attorneys of their respective counties, are made by law their legal advisers. I have, however, in every instance answered, to the best of my ability, all inquiries sent to this office which in any manner related to the duties of my office, or the interests of the State.

The labor in this office has been constant, occupying a good share of my time, and that of my clerk, L. T. Durand, Esq., to whose valuable services I here take pleasure in acknowledging my indebtedness.

While the office requires constant care and labor, its duties and responsibilities are from year to year increasing.

Michigan, in extent of territory, in population, and in material interests, is already a great State; yet, her population and industries are in their infancy, and the day is not distant when the needs of the State will demand the entire time, capacity and energies of its law officer.

The several Prosecuting Attorneys of the State, so far as has come to my knowledge, have faithfully and honestly discharged their duty to the people, and have cheerfully rendered me such assistance as was required of them.

The statute provides that each Prosecuting Attorney shall, in the month of November in each year, make and transmit to the Attorney General a report of the criminal business, &c. (Sec. 396, Comp. Laws.) The official term of Prosecuting Attorneys commences on the first day of January, and as each Prosecuting Attorney only reports the criminal business actually performed by him, it follows that whenever a change occurs in the office, the criminal business of at least one month preceding every such change is not reported. Such is the case in the county of Wayne this year. An amendment to the law, requiring reports of all business from a certain date, by the incumbent, would obviate this difficulty, and make the report of more value.

It frequently happens that writs of error are sued out of the Supreme Court, and the rules of the Court are not complied with by the Attorney for the plaintiff in error. The result is, that the papers and the case remain on file in that Court, and the Attorney General is in profound ignorance of the existence of the whole proceedings. The Prosecuting Attorney of the county where the case originated, or the clerk who issues the writ and receives the return, should be required to notify the Attorney General of the fact, so that he may move the case on to a hearing, or procure its dismissal for want of prosecution.

Proper blanks were furnished all the Prosecuting Attorneys of the State upon which to make their reports, as required by law. Herewith find abstracts of such reports as have been received.

Yours, respectfully,

DWIGHT MAY,

Attorney General.
